HORSE DRAWN CARRIAGE HISTORY TOUR THROUGH RIVERBEND PARK

The Palisade Historical Society and our business member JR's Carriage Service teamed up to host the Fruita Community Center group on a History Tour through Riverbend Park on October 8th!

The group learned about the history of Riverbend Park, from the former CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) Camp on the eastern end of the park that later housed German Prisoners of War, to the location of the former Migrant Labor Camp on the western end of the park, and the importance of the irrigation canal and river that flow around it.

We offer a huge thanks to JR's Carriage Service & the Fruita Community Center group. The Palisade Historical Society offers a variety of guided tours. If you're interested in more information, let us know!

The Palisade Historical Society hosted a Volunteer Appreciation Party at the Historic Crissey House on Saturday, October 26th. We have over 30 active volunteers, and most were able to attend. It was a gorgeous day for food, fun, games, and visiting!
